The hard copies and CD copies of the report will go out today. There was a disconnect with the distribution. We will change the date it was sent out to you to today on our tracking table.

Some of the appendices exceeded the file size limit on sharepoint and could not be posted.

Future submittals will be sent out shortly after the electronic posting. If you see any future delays or problems with appendices, please let me know.

Thank you.

Cathy

Can you please let me know if you received a hardcopy version or CD with complete Appendices? I have no record of receiving the hardcopy or CD. The Share site Steve and I downloaded a version from seems to be missing some Appendices.
